YOUNG WOMAN REPORTED SAFE

Boston, May 26.—Francis L. Higginson, Jr., received a cable dispatch from his sister, Miss Julia B. Higginson, today, stating that she was safe in Smyrna.

London, May 26.—Relatives here of Miss Julia B. Higginson of Boston fear that she might have been one of the passengers on board the steamer Nevada which sank on Saturday after striking three mines in the Gulf of Smyrna and carried forty persons down with her.

Miss Higginson had been visiting Smyrna. Inquiries are being made by cable as to her whereabouts. The American consul at Smyrna went today to the scene of the wreck to organize relief.

S. ZBYSKO SUFFERS FRACTURE OF SKULL

Montreal, May 25.—Stanislaus Zbyzsko, the Polish wrestler, is suffering from a fractured skull, and other injuries as a result of a plunge from the ring to the floor and alleged fouling tactics used by his opponent, Constant Le Martin, in a match here last night. While his condition is serious it is not believed that his injuries will prove fatal. The big Pole, however, will be out of the ring for some time.

The men had been wrestling only a few minutes when they plunged from the ring. Zbyzsko received a bad cut over his left eye in the fall and when the men returned to the ring the referee had to call time and have the wound stitched as the blood from it had completely covered the wrestler.

When hostilities began again the pole was the aggressor. He had secured a partial crotch hold and a reverse half Nelson when the Frenchman, it is alleged by the referee, fouled Zbyzsko so fiercely that the contest was stopped and the decision awarded the Pole.

Zbyzsko rose to his feet, but tottered and fell unconscious. He was taken to a hotel and an examination by the doctors disclosed a fractured skull.
